

A photograph of three dogs, likely Weimaraners, sitting in a field of dry leaves and grass. They are all wearing white ghost costumes with eye cutouts. The dog on the left has its mouth open, showing its tongue. In front of the dog on the left is a carved jack-o'-lantern with glowing eyes and a jagged mouth. The background is a dense thicket of trees and foliage. The text "THE OCTOBER THEORY" is overlaid in the center of the image.
